PECU FREE CHECKING TO GET UPDATED NAME

PECU has long offered you a Free Checking account option. We want those of you currently enrolled in our legacy PECU Free Checking account to be aware that its name will soon be updated to PECU Basic Checking. This account will continue to be free for its basic services.

We also want to make you aware that all of PECU's four new ATX Flex Rewards Checking accounts are free checking accounts. These accounts can also earn rewards.

We are updating our free legacy checking account's name to PECU Basic Checking because that account will soon offer an enhanced suite of fraud protection services that may be deployed at a minimal additional cost. You may also opt out of that enhanced protection that will be available on the new PECU Basic Checking.

If you have questions, or if you would like to change your PECU checking account to ATX Flex Rewards Checking to earn rewards, please contact PECU Financial Services at 1-800-772-1955 or email member@pecutx.org.

When you refer a friend to PECU, you can both earn $100 after they join and complete qualifying activity. Even better, there's no limit to how many people you can refer, so your contact list could seriously pay off.

Sending an invite is easy. Just text referral invites right from the Home Account Overview in PECU Home Banking. Scan the QR code below for more details.
