Help teach kids about good financial management by opening a PECU Zoo Crew savings account for them. PECU waives the new member fee for these kids accounts and it takes just a $10 deposit to open one. Children through age 12 will begin to learn the same sound financial decisions you have made by sticking with credit union membership.

PECU Zoo Crew accounts are fun! Your child will receive a cool membership card as well as a free new member kit that includes unique animal prizes. Kids enjoy animals and zoo themes. You can build on this natural love to help educate them about money in a fun way. PECU Zoo Crew accounts earn interest. In fact, they earn slightly higher interest rates than normal savings accounts! Plus, with each new deposit of $10 or more, your child will receive a PECU Zoo Crew animal deposit prize.

Simply fill out the Account Application herein and return it to PECU to get started. Rest assured, your child's savings are federally insured to at least $250,000 by the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government through the NCUA (National Credit Union Administration). In addition, PECU gives you an additional $250,000 of coverage through a private insurer at no cost to members.

Financial experts often point out there are many influences on what your child learns about using money. When you teach basic lessons about money, however, you increase the chance that your child's values will be similar to yours. PECU is here to help you! If you have questions about the PECU Zoo Crew savings account, please call 512-474-1955 or write to Public Employees Credit Union, P.O. Box 2205, Austin, Texas 78768-2205.
